

3. Interpolation/Approximation.

- (a) Write down Lagrange's form of the polynomial $p_n(x)$ of degree n that interpolates function values f_k at node locations $x_k; k = 0; 1; \dots; n$:
- (b) Prove that this interpolation polynomial is unique.