ECON 4514100: Economic History of Europe Dr. Nicole V. Jobin University of ColoradoEducation 155 Summer Term A, 2014M-F 12:45-2:20

Email: Nicole.Jobin@Colorado.edu

CourseWebsite: https://learn.colorado.edu Office: Sewall Hall: 267(303-492-3555)

Office Hours:M & Th 11:30-12:30 and most days after class by appointment

Accessing Electronic Copies of Readings

All of the reading material not found in your main textbooks can be accessed through the course D2L site (https://learn.colorado.e.gae more information below). You may also look for articles using the libraryÕs journal finder,http://ucblibraries.colorado.edu/reseta/ejournalfinder.htmType in the name of the to them and they will explain theirs to you. By the end of class, you should have all the pieces of information necessary to answer a question aboutatger issue all articles address thus the name OJigsaw. O Instructions and a grading rubric for these assignments are posted on D2L.

Norlin Special Collections Assignment: On Wednesday June of the Wednesday June of the Center for Britishand Irish Studies (5floor). We will see items held in Special Dections and Government Documents at pertain to the subject of our course and you will have assignment complete concerning a particular item of your choldere will be time during class to do preliminary research using the items from Special Collections and Government Documents for this short paper.

University and Class Policies

Classroom Courtesy: Come to class on time with readings prepared. Turn off cell phonessoundiect from Facebook, witter and other social media. This class requires a collaboration is effort on behalf of all of the students and I ask that you give your attention to whoever is speaking and to whatever task in which we are engaged. Distriup or disrespectful behavior may be grounds for loss of credit or academic sanctions. I reserve the right to ask you to turn off your laptop, tablet, or smartphone if it appears to be a distraction. (ease see University policyttp://www.colorado.edu/policies/student classroomand-courserelatedbehavion).

Attendance and Policy on Late Assignments: You are responsible for all material presented in class including announcements about readings, discussion, and assignments. Attendance will be taken randomlyand during group activities such as the presentations or the OJigsawO assignment days (see more below). There are no make up points for the selassactivities Dif you miss class, you miss the points. For the midterms, presentations amount assignments or receive full credit, they must be turned in on time unless you provide documentation of severe illness or other certifiable emergencies.

E-mail: All e-mail communication for the class is sent through the Chaë system. If you want to receive email through Yahoo, Genail, Comcast, etc., you are responsible for setting up your CU account to forward email to your non

6/12 | Joint Stocks Jigsaw #4 ReadCarlos, Key, and Dupre

| | Library Paper Due on D2L by 11:59 p.m.in Word or PDF formatlf you use pages, please |
|------|--|
| | |
| | save to PDF or .docx format before uploading to D2Ls drop box. Each essay should be no |
| | than three doublepaced pages. |
| 6/30 | European Economy inthe Early 20 th c. |

European Economy in the Early 20rd c.

Group #10: Bernanke The Macroeconomics of the Great Departern: A Comparative Approach(Journal of Money, Credit and Banking, 1995)

All read: Broadberry and BurhopReal Wages and Labor Productivity in Britain and Germa 1871-1938: A Unified Approach to the International Comparison of Living Standards na of