Honor Code Policy

All students of the University of Colorado at Boulder are responsible for knowing and adhering to the academic integrity policy of this institution. Violations of this policy may include: cheating, plagiarism, aid of academic dishonesty, fabrication, lying, bribery, and threatening behavior. All incidents of academic misconduct shall be reported to the Honor Code Council (honor@colorado.edu; 303-352-2273). Students who are found to be in violation of the academic integrity policy will be subject to both academic sanctions from the faculty member and non-academic sanctions (including but not limited to university probation, suspension, or expulsion). Other information on the Honor Code can be found at <http://www.colorado.edu/policies/honor> and at <http://www.colorado.edu/academics/honorcode/>

Discrimination and Harassment Policy

The University of Colorado Boulder (Boulder) is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working, and living environment. The University of Colorado does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, creed, religion, sexual orientation, or veteran status in admission access to, and treatment and employment in, its educational programs and activities. (Regent Law, Article 10, amended 11/8/2001) Boulder will not tolerate acts of discrimination or harassment based upon Protected Classes or
