computer. If you wish to transcribe your notes onto your computer when you get home, you are free to do so, but there are no laptops/tablets in class. The only exception to this rule is if disability services mandate that you must be allowed to use a laptop for note taking. If this is the case, you must provide me with an official letter from disability services.

Likewise for cell phones do not have them out and put them on silent. I reserve the right to kick anybody out of class for inconsiderate use of cell phones or laptops, as well as penalize points if necessary.

The percentages below will guarantee the corresponding letter grade (at least there may be additional curving; however I will not round grades up or down).

Percentage	Grade	Percentage	Grade
93 - 100%	А	73 - 76%	С
90 - 92%	A-	70 - 72%	С

If you have a temporary medical condition or injury, see guidelines at http://www.colorado.edu/disabilityservices/go.cgi?select=temporary.html.

Disability Services' letters for students with disabilities indicate legally mandated reasonable accommodations. The syllabus statements and answers to Frequently Asked Questions can be found at http://www.colorado.edu/disabilityservices.

Campus policy regarding religious observances requires that faculty make every effort to deal reasonably and fairly with all students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with
