

New Title IX Regulations: Required Revisions to Sexual Misconduct, Intimate Partner Violence and Stalking Policy

Presented by Title IX Systems Committee

Brief Overview

- Nov 2018: U.S. Department of Education releases proposed Title IX regulations
- Dec 2018-Sept 2019: System-wide Title IX Committee (Equity Offices/OUC/HR) reconvenes to review proposed regulations and model out scenarios consistent with values and compliance with applicable law
- May 6, 2020: U.S. Department of Education releases final Title IX regulations applicable to students and employees
- May 13, 2020: Committee reconvenes to draft new policy and model out staffing models
- July 3, 2020: Committee begins distribution of draft policy for feedback and review
- August 14, 2020: Required implementation date

Mission of Title IX Committee

- Ensure a safe and non-discriminatory environment
- Maintain strong policies, procedures and practices to prevent and respond to sexual misconduct
- Continue to provide equity and fairness during the case resolution process
- Comply with new and existing applicable federal and state law
- Create processes that our community can understand and access.

Review of Title IX regulations

- Narrows and prescribes definitions for Title IX sexual misconduct
- Narrows and prescribes jurisdiction for Title IX sexual misconduct
- Prescribes grievance procedures and staff roles for Title IX sexual misconduct adjudications

CU's Policy and new Title IX regulations – What has not changed?

- Coverage for all forms of sexual misconduct (Title IX and non-

CU's Policy – Education and Training

- Incoming students: July launch for online Community Equity/Effective Bystander
- Returning students: August launch for online Community Equity/Effective Bystander
- All Employees: August launch for online Discrimination and Sexual Misconduct/Effective Bystander

Questions?

